A soft white bread roll dusted with flour.
It was awarded a Protected Geographical Indication status by the European Commission in 2013

Waterford is best known for Waterford Crystal, founded in 1783 by George and William Penrose. Known for its high quality lead crystal, it produces luxury items like stemware, chandeliers, and decorative pieces, distinguished by intricate cuts that create brilliant light reflections. The brands signature patterns, such as Lismore, are iconic and widely collected.

The Hotel sits on the site of where the Neptune ship yard once built 40 iron steam ships, 5 of them large ocean liners for Malcomson's of Waterford. The Shipyard was opened in 1843 and now gives name to our bar.
